

Since 1992, Heritage Camps for Adoptive Families (HCAF) has existed to support the healthy development of families formed by adoption, and to promote the successful transition of adopted children into healthy, confident, well-grounded adults who are proud of themselves, their families, and their heritage.

Camps are held each summer in Colorado, and are “family camps.” Adults attend workshops while kids (adoptees and siblings – age 3 -17) attend age appropriate programs. Relevant programming is also offered for adult adoptees, age 18 and up.

Culture

Learning and connecting through culture is an exciting and meaningful part of each of our Heritage Camps. Our cultural community members create programming and lead the campers in learning more about and exploring their cultures. Building self-esteem and a strong sense of identity is also part of our programming.

We also believe that adoption is a culture of its own. There is a very special understanding of adoption at this camp that can't be replicated anywhere else.

Community

Children and parents have a unique opportunity to share their experiences and create community with other families that were formed just like their own. Great relationships are also developed between campers and their cultural community and counselors.

Counselors

Much-loved volunteers provide guidance, friendship, and role models for the children at camp. Many counselors are adopted themselves, from the same country/culture as the campers, and/or they are young adult volunteers from the cultural community.

The 9 camps include:

- African Caribbean Heritage Camp
- Chinese (mountains) Heritage Camp
- Chinese II (urban) Heritage Camp
- Domestic Adoption Camp
- Indian/Nepalese Heritage Camp
- Korean Heritage Camp
- Latin American Heritage Camp
- Russian/Eastern European/ Central Asian Heritage Camp
- Southeast Asian/Pacific Islander Heritage Camp

Connection

Networking with other adoptive and foster families, adult adoptees, and experts in the field of adoption and culture are the key components of camp. Each camp's workshops include nationally renowned speakers and experts in their field.

LATIN AMERICAN HERITAGE CAMP (LAHC)

celebrates Latin American culture, the culture of adoption, and supports Latin adoptees, born internationally or domestically, of all ages and their adoptive or foster families.

"So much to love about LAHC! For my kids to be surrounded by kids 'just like them' and their entire families. Time together focusing on their heritage, which is now our heritage. And the friends we've all made! Nothing like it anywhere!"

This camp is held at the YMCA of the Rockies Snow Mountain Ranch in Fraser, Colorado for adoptive and foster families with children from ages 3 to 17. All family members, adult adoptees, waiting families, and extended family members are also encouraged to attend.

Age-appropriate programming for kids PreK to High School may include:

Programming for adults may include:

- Understanding race and allyship as parents of Latin American children
- Supporting children affected by trauma, unique health needs, behavioral/developmental challenges, and more
- Learning about homeland tours and birth parent searches
- Navigating birth/first family relationships
- Hearing adult adoptee perspectives
- Exploring Latin American arts & crafts, cooking, culture, family traditions, and more
- Hiking, biking, mini-golfing, socializing- camp fun!

- Exploring and learning about the authenticity of the Latin American cultures
- Learning about Latin American culture now- food, arts, sports, pop culture, and more
- Professionally facilitated conversations among children about their experiences as adoptees
- Teaching healthy coping skills to help pre-teens & teens feel empowered, self-confident, and authentically themselves
- Team-building courses, archery, rafting, zip line, and more outdoor fun!

Heritage Camps for Adoptive Families is proud to be celebrating 32 years in 2023!

Our camp counselors are often Latin American adoptees themselves, are fully trained, and are dedicated to our campers.

Programming for all ages is facilitated by the Latin American communities, adoption and child development professionals, race educators, and through collaborative partnerships.

Post-High School Adult Adoptee Programming may include:

- Managing life transitions with guidance and support
- Hearing from adoptees about career decisions, adulting, relationships, etc.
- Navigating first/birth family relationship here or abroad
- Team-building, rafting, high ropes course, social hours and more camp fun!
